Book Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Springer Netherlands | Although this book is a translation from Dutch, the chief obstacle to be overcome was Husserl's (German) technical terminology. As I sought English equivalents for German phenomenological terms, I made thankful use of Dorion Cairns's Guide for Translating Husserl as well as existing translations of Husserl's works, especially J. N. Findlay's rendering of Logische Untersuchungen. Since the technical terminology in the various translations and English studies of Husserl is far from uniform, I had to devise my own system of equivalents for key Husserlian terms. As I translated the quotations from Husserl's works into English, I did consult the available translations and draw on them, but I endeavored to keep the technical vocabulary uniform -sometimes by fresh translations of the passages quoted and sometimes by slight alterations in the existing translations. I made these changes not so much out of any basic disagreement with other translators as out of a desire to keep the terminology uniform throughout the book. 1 For the benefit of German and French readers not entirely at home with the English phenomenological vocabulary, I have included a small translation table in which my English equivalents for some central German terms are listed. Words with cognates or well-established phenomenological terms as their English equivalents have not been included. Finally, I should like to express my thanks to Prof. | One Philosophy as Descriptive Psychology.- I. Acts, Contents and the Relations between Them.- Section 1. The Intentional Relation to the Object.- 1. The Distinction between Act and Content.- 2. Acts of a Higher Order.- 3. Symbolic or Non-genuine Presentations.- I. In Philosophie der Arithmetik.- II. In "Psychologische Studien zur elementaren Logik".- Section 2. Contents.- 1. The Immanence of Contents.- I. In Brentano's Thought.- II. In Philosophie der Arithmetik.- III. In "Psychologische...
