The History Press Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, West Yorkshire Folk Tales, John Billingsley, Whether hailing from the open Pennine hills or the close-knit neighbourhoods of the industrial towns, the people of West Yorkshire have always been fond of a good story. From cautionary tales and amusing anecdotes to age-old legends and fantastical myths, a broad range of folk tales from this proud region are showcased here. Within these pages are tales of legendary rocks, Robin Hood, tragic love affairs, thwarted villainy, witches, fairies, hidden treasure and much more. The intriguing stories, brought to life with beautiful line-drawings by a local artist, will be enjoyed by readers time and again. John Billingsley is a regular speaker for local societies, and is a committee member and programme secretary of the Hebden Bridge Local History Society. As well as writing articles and editing journals, John has authored five books.
