TTTE are passing away as a bright summer day, VV When the hours of gladness fly swift as the wind; As a dream of the night we are passing away, And leaving the world and its sorrows behind. From the schemes of ambition, the hoardings of wealth, From the gay dream of pleasure we soon will be gone, And the cheek now suffused with the bright glow of health Shall tell by its pallor the spirit hath flown. We are fading away as the flower of the plain; We are dying away as the bird s failing song; We are passing away as the stream to the main, Where its wave glides in silence and beauty along. We are passing away as the summer cloud flies, O er the green fields outspread in their beauty below; We are wilting away as the autumn...
