Prophetic words for South Africa plus detailed words for many specific nations and continents. The Prophets Round Table comes together annually for a time of concentrated prayer and meditation on the voice of God The words for the years 2011, 2012 and 2013 have proven exceptionally correct as you can verify at our members online presences such as This document is meant for prayerful consideration. It includes warnings of upcoming dangers as well as pointers us in the right directions regarding business and personal life decisions. It will inspire business owners, educators and people who work for governments seeking to be instrumental to establish God's will in their environment. We believe that even though the words were received in 2013 they are still brand new and current. While the events described are busy happening right now, you are called upon to pray for the safety of people and for governments and businesses to make the right decision. Participants to the 2014 Prophets Round Table were: Anita...
