Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The National Monthly of Canada, Vol. 7: Toronto, July, 1905 The fierce white light which beats upon the throne never shines too brightly to dazzle Emperor William the Sudden of Germany. He pursues his way steadfastly, with an eye single to the aggrandisement of the German Empire and the German Emperor. After five years of diplomatic man uvres he has at last brought about the virtual cancellation of the Dual Alliance between France and Russia. But in this he had the Fates working for him. Russia s military power is reduced to a minimum at present, and Russia is in no position to threaten the eastern frontier of Germany should hostilities break out between that country and France. Emperor William has also engineered the downfall of M. Delcasse, the ablest Minister of Foreign Affairs whom France has had for many years. M. Delcasse brought about the Franco-Russian alliance and about a year ago he and Lord Lansdowne engineered the Anglo-French entente regarding Morocco. These two agreements were the two hardest setbacks the Kaiser ever received...
