PHYSICAL EDUCATION. t Equals at the squire s table after the withdrawal of the ladies, at the farmers market-ordinary, and at the village ale-house, the topic which, after the political question of the day, excites perhaps the most general interest, is the management of animals. Riding home from hunting, the con versation is pretty sure to gravitate towards horsebreeding, and pedigrees, and comments on this or that good point; while a day on the moors i8 very unlikely to pass without something being said on the treatment of dogs. When crossing the fields together from church, the tenants of adjacent farms are apt to pass from criticisms on the sermon to criticisms on the weather, the crops, and the stock; and thence to slide into discussions on the various kinds of fodder and their feeding qualities. Hodge and Giles, after comparing...
