Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Documents of the General Assembly of Indiana, Vol. 1: At the Thirty-Third Session, Commencing December 4, 1848 To the General Assembly of the State of Indiana: In obedience to law I submit a report of the business and present condition of the agency of State, established in the city of New York, for the management of the public debt of the State, under the acts of 19th January 1846, and 27th January 1847. The most convenient periods for making settlements by this agency will be the last days of June and December of each year. On the first of January and July books have to be in readiness to distribute dividends to the holders of stock. Fifteen days prior to each one of those days the Transfer Books have to be closed to prevent confusion - the stock, whilst transfers are permitted, is continually changing hands. The Books being made up for the settlement of interest shew the name of each stockholder, the amount of stock held by him, and the dividend he is entitled to receive. If any other days should be adopted for settling the Books, the labor of the office would be materially increased, and the stockholders be precluded of the right to transfer whilst the Books were in use in preparation of a balance sheet, without any perceptible advantage - conformably to this suggestion the accompanying reports, (except as to the certificates filed and dividends paid,) are up to the 31st June last. The report of the certificates filed is complete to 31 st September last, as is also the account of dividends paid. Prior to the first day of...
